CHAPTER 9 SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR VOTING BY A CLASS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 9.1 Shareholders holding different classes of shares are “different classes of shareholders”.

Different classes of shareholders enjoy rights and assume obligations according to requirements of law, administrative regulations and these Articles.

Where the share capital of the Company contains shares without voting right, the words “non-voting” must appear in the designation of such shares.

Where the share capital includes shares carrying different voting rights, the designation of each class of shares, other than those with the most favourable voting rights, shall include the words “restricted voting” or “limited voting”.

Article 9.2 Rights conferred on any class of shareholders in the capacity of shareholders (“class rights”) may not be varied or abrogated unless approved by a special resolution of shareholders in general meeting and by holders of shares of that class at a separate meeting conducted in accordance with Article 9.4 to 9.8.

Article 9.3 The following circumstances are deemed as amending or canceling rights of certain classes of shareholders:

Article 9.4 Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not otherwise having the right to vote at general meetings, shall nevertheless have the right to vote at class meetings in respect of matters concerning items (ii) to (viii), (xi) and (xii) of Article 9.3, but interested shareholder(s) shall not be entitled to vote at class meetings.

The Company may then hold the class meeting after such publication of notice.

Article 9.7 Notice of class meetings need only be served on shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

Any meeting of a class of shareholders shall be conducted in a manner as similar as possible to that of general meetings. The provisions of these Articles relating to the manner to conduct any general meeting shall apply to any meeting of a class of shareholders.
